

Putting an end to sexual assault through prevention and care.

Formerly known as RAAP

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT PREVENTION SPECIALIST

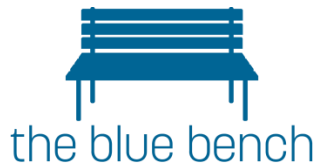

At The Blue Bench, our mission is to eliminate sexual assault and diminish the impact it has on individuals, their loved ones and our community through comprehensive issue advocacy, prevention and care.

Job Summary:

The primary role of the Prevention Specialist is to be an engaging and professional facilitator within all of The Blue Bench Prevention Programs. The Blue Bench serves our diverse Denver Metro communities and values diversity among staff. Applicants of all ethnicities, genders, sexuality, age and ability are encouraged to apply.

Prevention programs include, but are not limited to:

- Safety and Empowerment Training (SET) for female-identified learners 13 years and older
- Let's Talk About It: Sexual Assault Prevention for Youth, for middle and high school aged learners
- Knowledge Is Power: Sexual Assault Awareness for community and school settings
- Bringing In The Bystander (BITB) for college and high school learners
- Safe Bars bystander intervention training for staff at alcohol-serving establishments
- iEmpathize: The Empower Youth Program for teen exploitation prevention among junior high and high school learners
- A Part of the Solution: Sexual Violence Prevention for incarcerated individuals at Denver Women's Prison
- Keeping Youth Safe for parents of middle and high school students
- Grade School curriculum when it is implemented
- The Specialist reports directly with the Director of Prevention & Education and works with the Director to achieve departmental goals and agency mission.
- The Specialist will often work a schedule that mirrors that of a traditional school setting (approx. 7:30-3:30) but will require occasional evenings and weekends. It is an hourly position as trainings are scheduled. This position will spend approx. 90% of the time engaged in facilitation of The Blue Bench Prevention programming.
- All applicants will be required to pass a fingerprint background check.

Putting an end to sexual assault through prevention and care.

Formerly known as RAAP

Job Qualifications, Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities:

- Experience as an educator, facilitator or trainer.
- Strong facilitation skills. Prior facilitation skills training preferred.
- Experience working with diverse communities, including youth, incarcerated individuals and other underserved communities.
- Experience with the following areas of education and prevention programming strongly preferred:
 - Sexual violence
 - Youth exploitation and sexual abuse
 - Domestic violence
 - Healthy relationships
- Detail oriented with strong organizational skills.
- Strong oral and written communication skills.
- Basic knowledge and experience using Microsoft Office Programs.
- Some college coursework preferred. Bachelor's degree preferred
- Demonstrated commitment to anti-violence and social change/social justice through personal and/or professional experiences.
- Understanding of and commitment to the connection between anti-oppression and sexual violence prevention work.
- Strong leadership skills desired.
- Flexibility around the scheduling of trainings is a must.
- Fluency in Spanish and English strongly preferred.
- Able to effectively respond to and support students who disclose an experience of sexual violence.
- A valid driver's license and reliable transportation is required for travel to training locations throughout the Metro Denver area.

Job Duties and Responsibilities:

- Delivers engaging and culturally relevant prevention trainings to diverse audiences across the Denver Metro area, with fidelity.
- Publicly represents The Blue Bench in a professional, thoughtful and engaging manner.
- Advises and implements effective program development (including curricula development) strategies based upon an understanding of sexual violence prevention models, theories, and best practices in collaboration with program director to better meet the diverse needs of the Denver Metro Community.
- Cultivates and maintains positive relationships and effective partnerships with community members, groups and agencies toward increased program accessibility.
- Demonstrates a strong ability to engage youth in an ongoing understanding of sexual violence and how they can play an active role in preventing it.
- Provides Prevention demographic and evaluation documentation to department director in a timely fashion.

Putting an end to sexual assault through prevention and care.

Formerly known as RAAP

The Blue Bench accepts applications on an ongoing basis and will notify applicants of the opportunity to interview if there is a position available with a strong match with their skill sets and availability.

To apply, send cover letter, résumé, and typical weekly availability (hours and days of week) to Susie Roman, Director of Prevention & Education: sroman@thebluebench.org.